Here's an example of a well-written obituary:

"Margaret Elizabeth Smith (née Johnson)

Born 12th April 1945, passed away peacefully on 10th February 2023, aged 77.

Beloved wife of John, loving mother of David and Sarah, and cherished grandmother of Emily and James.

Margaret was a devoted teacher at Llaregyb School for over 30 years, touching the lives of countless children. She was an avid gardener, passionate about her family, and loved nothing more than a good cup of tea and a chat with friends.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Margaret's life at a funeral service to be held at Salem Chapel, Llaregyb, on 24th February at 2pm.

Donations in lieu of flowers to the Llaregyb Hospice, a charity close to Margaret's heart, would be greatly appreciated.

Rest in peace, dear Margaret."
